MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Comes Now Plaintiff, Zephyrinus Egbuonu (Pro-Se) respectfully moves this Court for extension of time to and including 03/20/08 for Plaintiff to file a response to such Defendants' pleading. For grounds Plaintiff States:

1. The Plaintiff did not received Defendants' special report with deadline of December 18, 2007 until January 10, 2008 (see attached United States Postal Service stamped envelope).
2. The Defendants' opposition to Plaintiff's civil complaint is length and complex.
3. The Plaintiff will be unable to adequately obtain affidavit and affidavit of his witnesses and evidences to verify that Plaintiff is not Royce Privett and not confined at Limestone Correctional facility in Harvest, Alabama as alleged by Defendants, and response by 01/28/08 deadline.
4. The Plaintiff is proceeding Pro-Se and lacks knowledge in Civil Litigation and requires extension of time to prepare an adequate response to Defendant's opposition pleading.

5. The granting of this request will result in judicial economy with a Plaintiff response answer being filed together with evidences and affidavit of his witnesses against all Defendants at one time.
6. No party will be prejudiced by the granting of this request.

W H E R E F O R E, based on the foregoing the Plaintiff respectfully request that the Court grant this motion, and allow for additional days to file his response pleading to such Defendants' opposition pleadings, making the extended deadline 03/20/08.

Respectfully Submitted,

January 21, 2008
